Cyprus is our home base, where we have been welcoming thousands of visitors for decades. Aiming to satisfy various segments of the travel market, we have established Louis Hotels across the island. NICOSIA

NICOSIA, the capital of Cyprus, is a multicultural European destination, an international business centre, a historical treasure trove and a cultural hotbed, all in one. Even visitors who are primarily interested in a seaside holiday enjoy an excursion to the inland capital. A day tour will introduce you to Nicosia's charming and thoughtfully renovated Old Town, its archaeological and more specialized museums, its established local handicraft centre, and of course its high-end as well as popular shopping areas. In between, visitors will discover the population's main pastime: casual dining and café hopping!

Hilton Nicosia *****

LIMASSOL

LIMASSOL is where the action is. It is the shipping and commercial hub of Cyprus, but also the party town of the island. High-profile business runs alongside the most popular festivities, from Carnival to the annual Wine Festival, with several other local celebrations throughout the year. The town's twin personality – serious and fun-loving at the same time – makes it a favourite among travellers who want to combine business and pleasure. But it is also the destination of choice for those who are looking forward to a holiday packed with cosmopolitan entertainment, exciting nightlife and fine dining options.

Limassol

The Royal Apollonia *****

PAPHOS

PAPHOS on the island's western coast offers an amazing mix of history and mythology, natural beauty and resort atmosphere. With its abundance of world-famous archaeological sites, the town as a whole was declared a UNESCO World Heritage site. Known as the legendary birthplace of Aphrodite, the ancient Greek goddess of love, it is surrounded by an air of timeless romance. As such, it attracts nature enthusiasts, holidaymakers seeking outdoor fun and activities, but also a significant number of couples who are planning an overseas wedding in an environment that echoes love and romance.
